

THE NEXT PHASE OF EVENTING CAMP

June 25th – 29th and July 23rd-27

AT

*Whatever your next phase is, this camp will meet your needs.
The camp is open to all ages and levels and will benefit all riders.*

- For those new to eventing or moving up to the next level, we will advance your skills in course walks, pacing, dressage tests, etc.
- For those in Pony Club, we have the experience to guide you towards your next rating through bandaging, longeing and target the areas of your riding that need development..

Students will receive one flat lesson and one jump lesson per day. They also will have the opportunity to attend horse management sessions, evening games, and discussions.

Elk Haven Equestrian Center is a beautiful facility near Cle Elum with a cross-country course, two outdoor rings, a pacing track, outdoor stalls and direct access to miles of trails.

All dinners will be catered and far beyond traditional camp food. Restrooms and showers are onsite.

Contact Kelsey Devoille at (206) 947-0857 or Kelsey_N28@hotmail.com for more information and registration forms

Maris Burns has her A rating in the United States Pony Club. In dressage, she has competed through 4th level and won the Jr Young Rider Championships in 2002. She has been a working student for eventing gold medallist Nick Holmes-Smith and ridden under many clinicians including Conrad Schumacher. She is presently pursuing a degree in Equine Sciences at Colorado State University.

Kelsey Devoille currently has the A rating in the United States Pony Club. She has been a working student for Olympic level dressage coach Dietrich Von Hopfgarten and has worked with Nick Holmes-Smith, Robin Hahn, and Major Jeremy Beal. She is a rater and instructor for Pony Clubs in the Northwest Region. Currently, she is pursuing a degree at the University of Washington.